Featherbed Island House in DownEast Maine is perfect for:

- ARTISTS OF ALL TYPES
- NATURE LOVERS
- ROMANTIC GETAWAYS
- WRITERS - it would be a grand space for a writing workshop
- BIRDERS - a true bird-watching paradise
- FAMILIES WITH YOUNG EXPLORERS
- ELOPEMENTS
- SABBATICALS

The Outdoors:

The property is salt waterfront on an estuary where the river greets the ocean, a prime spot to observe eagles and seals and all that nature has to offer.

- ROLLING LAWN SURROUNDED BY ACRES OF FOREST
- FLOWERS, APPLE TREES, BLUEBERRY AND RASPBERRY BUSHES

-GRASSY TIDAL AREA FOR WATER ACCESS

-SMALL FRESHWATER POND

-PRIVATE ISLAND - Featherbed Island - just offshore - one acre (more or less), uninhabited but a frequent stop for eagles and seals and other shorebirds.

Rumor has it that the pirate, Captain Black Sam Bellamy buried his treasure somewhere in proximity to this very property! (But please, no digging!).
