The Cottage

Pop open the bubbly because it's time to celebrate!

Every night here is a celebration of thousands of twinkling stars reflecting on the vast Atlantic ocean. (Even a rainstorm is mesmerizing with the patter of droplets on the roof).

Imagine your vacation enveloped in a canopy of trees surrounded by your loved one & nothing but the sounds of the birds & the boats chugging by. Your vacation will be gloriously unplugged as there is no internet, no television and little cell reception at the cottage. Nothing to interrupt the little things that often get overlooked during everyday life.

The cottage has a separate living room and kitchen/dining room. The living room has a queen futon and the dining area has seating for four. There is a small bedroom with a queen bed and a bathroom with a shower.

The Outdoor Area

This sweet cottage is down a mile long private country grass road. A screened in porch is probably where the most time will be spent, watching the boats, sipping cocktails or just reading a good book. Trust us! The views are just amazing!

Dip your toes in the chilly Atlantic at the end of your private rocky ledge or 'make like a lizard' and sunbathe on the warm rocks. You won't want to move either. The waterfront is on the 'open ocean' via rocky access.

Wonderful and Idyllic!

Spruce Cottage

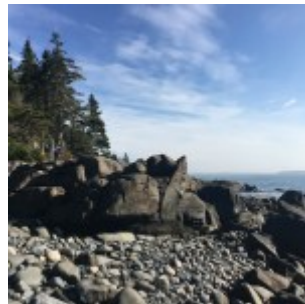

First, let me just say that if you're looking to unplug, then this is just the place! It's quiet, secluded and relaxed. From waking up to peek out at the ocean from your bedroom window first thing, to settling down and enjoying the crackle of a fire on your own private beach in the evening, you will feel refreshed and enlivened at Spruce Cottage. The cottage is both homey and well-provisioned so that while there is no internet or TV, you won't feel like you're missing out on a thing! Two highlights of each day were leisurely spent on the screened-in porch: in the morning, having our coffee while watching the lobster boats, and just before bed, listening to the crash of the waves against the rocky shore.

It should also be mentioned that the local area provided plenty to do. A short drive's away, the town of Machias was well worth visiting for cute shops, good food, and outdoor recreation. We really enjoyed Helen's Restaurant, which seriously had the best blueberry pie we've ever eaten! (In fact, we went there twice - the second time just for pie!) I'll also mention that Rob at Sunrise Canoe and Kayak was a pleasure to work with, and we had a great time kayaking Rocky Lake when the weather didn't cooperate for a sea tour.

Overall, I think this cottage, with its amenities (or "lack" thereof!), is a wonderful place to breathe and unwind. For us, the quaintness of it was very appealing and, in some ways, seemed to take us back to a simpler way of life.

Wonderful stay!

Spruce Cottage

My husband and I stayed at Spruce Cottage for our honeymoon. It was absolutely amazing! Not only were we pleasantly surprised with how well stocked the cottage was, we really enjoyed our time just relaxing on the screened-in porch, listening to the waves, watching boats or warming ourselves by a fire on the beach. The seclusion, peace and quiet were perfect for two people frazzled from the whirlwind days leading up to our wedding. We would highly recommend this magical place to anyone needing to unplug.

One of our best vacations

Spruce Cottage

We just got back home Saturday. We wanted to let you know that it was one of our best vacations. The view was tremendous and the seclusion was very welcome. We visited many of the beaches within an hours driving distance and enjoyed the wide variety of types of beaches. Arcadia National Park was gorgeous. When we first arrived in Maine, the leaves were just beginning to change. When we left the color was just breathtaking.

There are very few places left where you can shut out the world and enjoy peace and quiet. We chose to not get a cell phone that would work there.

Having no computer available was great as well as no TV nor phone.

We hope that all this stays unspoiled in the years to come.

A Hidden Gem

Spruce Cottage

Maria was very accommodating, and helpful. The property is magical. We feel so fortunate to have gotten to spend our summer vacation at this hidden gem.

We'll be back!

Spruce Cottage

What a wonderful, quaint and peaceful place to stay while visiting Maine! The Spruce Cottage was perfect! The surroundings were breathtaking and the screened in porch allowed us to enjoy it even during the evenings! I loved disconnecting and really taking advantage of the nature around us. The people in Addison are so friendly and helpful. We took day trips to Acadia, Machias and Ellsworth. Maria was so helpful and accommodating! Easy to get a hold of checked in to make sure everything was perfect! We will definitely be back and would love to stay at Spruce Cottage again!

Time to Reconnect

Spruce Cottage

We had a excellent time in South Addison. We enjoyed looking for shells, having cookouts, playing games and exploring the area. The cottage was everything we hoped for with the shelves stocked with things we could use. Every morning we watched all the lobster boats pull in their catch for the day. Just a half a mile from the cottage, the kids enjoyed going to the Lobster Trap. They got to see the lobster boats off load. We got to purchase lobster and bring them back for a delicious meal. It was a fun and relaxing vacation. Everything we were looking for.
